

TUCKER AXUM

ABOUT ME

Tucker Axum is a New York Times bestselling author who wrote the international thriller Cajun Justice with the world's #1 bestselling writer, James Patterson. His debut novel, The Reawakening of Mage Axum, was inspired by the mysterious disappearance of his uncle, an American World War II soldier. Tucker is a licensed pilot and career federal law enforcement professional who has served as a special agent conducting criminal investigations, counter-terrorism missions, and executive protection to VIPs in the United States, Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia, and onboard military warships. He currently lives in Southern California with his family.

THE REAWAKENING OF MAGE AXUM

A wounded World War II American soldier awakens in a military hospital with memories of being one person but residing in the body of another.

"A tale of how otherwise ordinary lives get caught up in the swirl of history, and all of the good and bad that can come of it. At its core a story of second chances -- and how those of us lucky enough to get them might go about getting things right on the next go-around."

Erik Slavin, Stars and Stripes

CAJUN JUSTICE

This New York Times bestseller follows ex-Secret Service agent Cain Lemaire as he uncovers the dark secrets hidden beneath the Tokyo streets. He must race against the clock to save a loved one from Japan's ruthless mafia, the Yakuza. Will he succeed?
